THE RESERVE LIST

Sparkling

2012 Dom Pérignon – Hautvillers, FRANCE

405

Dom Pérignon is vintage Champagne only. Each vintage wine is created from the finest grapes grown in one single year. Reinventing itself by interpreting the unique character of the seasons. Wonderful elegance and balance, a magnificent bouquet with hint of smoke and autolytic notes provide a compelling counterpart to eager yet elegant aromas of citrus (lime, tangerine and kumquat) joined by those of fresh fruit, herbs, liquorice, and menthol. There is even a refreshing note of ivy. The palate is tense, vibrant, and very fresh despite its impressive density, which meets its match with an unending finish

White

2020 Lagar De Costa, Tradición, Albariño – Rias Baixas, SPAIN

108

Barrel aged Albariño is something of a rarity, the right quality of fruit and winemaking knowhow is essential. Aged in old oak foudres, this Albariño retains its characteristic freshness, with all the positive impacts of oak aging. Slightly spiced ripe stone fruit on the nose, with a palate of candied lemon skin, smoky spiced vanilla and dried apricot

2019 Levantine Hill Estate, Chardonnay – Yarra Valley, VIC

143

Rising from the shores of the Yarra River at 75 meters and peaking at 225 meters above sea level, Levantine Hill vines thrive in looking out over steep clay loam slopes, at similar elevations to the grand cru vineyards of Chablis, France. This unique microclimate, along side the very low yields create the base for a superb full-bodied chardonnay. Youthful wine with very attractive aromas of creamy lees, lightly browned toast, bread crust and honey. Taut and tense in the mouth, it is focused, refined, lively and very intense, driving through a long finish

Red

2018 Telmo Rodriguez, Corriente, Tempranillo Blend – Rioja, Spain

105

A Reserva Rioja, having spent a year in oak and selected from the best of the vintage crop, this is not your normal fruit bomb Rioja. It's a countryside wine, with meat, cherry, mint and liquorice on the nose, all in a swirl. The palate is laden with red berries and hints of sweet spice

2015 Château Lanessan, Haut Médoc, Bordeaux blend – Bordeaux, France

120

Considered one of the best value Bordeaux wineries, this wine really delivers at it's age and price. Classic 'left bank', earth, tobacco and dark fruits resplendent as it opens up surprisingly quickly in our decanter. A steak's best friend

- 2016 Morgan Simpson, Reprieve Shiraz – McLaren Vale, SA 122
Small, yet extremely high-quality producer from McLaren Vale using traditional winemaking techniques, open fermentation and basket pressing. After 18 months in oak, the result here is a powerful and concentrated beast. Ripe plums and blackberry, vanilla, coconut and a hint of liquorice. If you like your McLaren Vale Shiraz's, this one is for you
- 2018 Hennings Vineyard, The Lone Vine Reserve Shiraz – Heathcote 158
Offering quality that can out hit most equivalent McLaren Vale and Barossa offerings, Heathcote has been producing incredible value for it's Shiraz for quite some time now. This is simply one of the best you can get your hands on. Very accessible for a wine that will age nicely for 20 years, it's powerful, yet drop dead pretty. Plenty of blackberry, spice and oak here with silky dry tannins and a finish you'll taste in the morning
- 2011 Conde Valdemar, Gran Reserva, Tempranillo – Rioja, Spain 182
Our 'Crown Jewel' from Rioja. Voted as one of the top wineries in the whole of Rioja and going on for nearly a century and a half, Conde Valdemar is credited as having some of the finest wines at reasonable prices, unlike some of the other best in class Gran Reservas. This wine has entered it's peak and is simply a joy to drink. On the nose, sweet cherry pie, truffle, coconut and a hint of balsamic

Dessert / Fortified

- 2007 Jorge Ordonez, Muscat of Alexandria – Malaga, Spain 14/33/160
 (30ml/75ml/375ml)
100% Muscat of Alexandria, the oldest variety in the Muscat family and one of the few remaining genetically unmodified vitis vinifera cultivars remaining in the world today. Mind blowing complexity with peach jam, dried apricots, honey, nutmeg and jasmine. The list could go on and on. We offer this sweet wine in a 30ml serve just so you have a chance to try it
